

Please realize that good intentions do not always do the greater good. Give people the freedom to choose, not ration thier choices.